Security Disclosure Statement

PJ's College of Cosmetology makes every effort to provide a safe crime-free environment for our students and staff, however in the event a crime does occur; we want you to be aware of the procedures you should follow. If you are personally involved in, or witness of, a crime at our institution's immediate building or surrounding parking areas you should call 911 as soon as possible. You should also immediately report the crime to the school director or the most senior official in his/her absence. Evening students should use the buddy system for security when leaving the building at night. Students and staff committing any crime or sexual offense, while a student or employed will be suspended or terminated based on the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer, Judith Stewart.

Weapons Policy: PJ's College of Cosmetology does not allow students, staff or visitors to the school to have any weapons on the campus property. This policy includes, but is not limited to concealed weapons including those with weapons permits. Any employee or student carrying a weapon on their person or among their property is in violation of PJ's College of Cosmetology policy. PJ's College of Cosmetology has a zero tolerance for weapons possession. Violation of this policy will result in immediate dismissal and referral to the appropriate law enforcement agency for possible prosecution.

The attached statistics are provided under the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act Public Law 101-542 with regard to the occurrence of the following criminal offenses reported to campus authorities and provided by local law enforcement for the period of 2009 to 2011.
